

A Guiding Light

Glenn Johnson

Despite his demanding role as director of Lutherwood Residential Treatment Center, Glenn Johnson had certainly done his part for Damar in 1984.

Having completed his term as Damar Board president, Glenn was prepared to transition out of his leadership role at Damar.

Unfortunately, as crisis often calls for a continuity of leadership, Glenn Johnson met the challenge when that time arose at Damar.

Volunteering to serve another term as president, Glenn provided the steady hand necessary for guiding Damar through challenging times.

Though now retired, Glenn continues to serve the cause of children in need and is remembered as one of the most respected names in Indiana for his long career of community service.

“Glenn Johnson was a powerful beacon of light guiding Damar through some of the stormiest seas we’ve experienced over the past 40 years,” said Damar President & CEO Greg Johnson.
