

Service That Bears Fruit

Sertoma Club of West Indianapolis

“Santa put a rotten orange in my sock,” is the memorable quote of a Damar child upon opening his Sertoma-sponsored Christmas stocking over 25 years ago.

“We thought an orange would be a healthy alternative,” shared Bruce Bright, a member of the Sertoma Club of West Indianapolis.

Without hesitation, fellow charter Sertoma member Steve Gore came to the rescue after a quick trip to the grocery store to save the day and Santa’s quickly deteriorating reputation.

“Westside Sertoma has gone on to become one of Damar’s most tenured and valued support groups providing Halloween hayrides to our kids each year, sponsoring movie nights, volunteer support for special events and significant financial support for our capital campaigns,” said Damar President & CEO, and fellow Sertoman, Greg Johnson. “These guys help to ensure that our stockings remain filled with their kindness.”

Pictured here, representing the Sertoma Club of West Indianapolis, are members (left to right) Steve Gore, Al Case and Bruce Bright.